The Fairfield County Child Support Enforcement Agency (CSEA) is committed to providing the best possible service to our customers. In an effort to increase efficiency and provide better access to information, you will find below a list of phone numbers. These are direct phone numbers to the staff assigned to your case. Please call with questions and/or concerns as needed. If our staff is unavailable to answer your call, please leave a detailed voice mail message that includes; your name, case number or Social Security number, the concern, and your return number. You can expect to have your call returned within one full business day.

Please know that if you are calling long distance you may call toll free 1-800-409-2732, press zero for the operator and request to speak with your case manager directly.

Forms and other helpful information are also available on our website at www.fcjfs.org.

Enforcement cases are divided into eight separate caseloads. Each caseload has a Case Manager and a Case Manager Assistant working to address enforcement concerns. Cases are assigned pursuant to the last name of the Obligee (the person receiving child support).

Payment information may be accessed at any time by calling 1-800-860-2555 or by visiting www.ifs.ohio.gov/ocs/.
